Librarian's Report for 1945

I am pleased to report that the Monroe Free Public Library has served the citizens of Monroe for 50 years.

At the March town meeting in 1894, an article was in the town warrant to see if the town would raise $25 annually in compliance with the state law for the purpose of maintaining a library in town. The article was promptly dismissed when it came up in town meeting. Women did not vote in those days.

The next year (1895) the article was again inserted in the warrant and the town voted to raise at least $25 and elected the following trustees: John Hall, chairman, Alvah Draper and Homer S. Smith.

By the town voting money for a library the state gave the town 100 books to start the library with. Seventy of these books are still on the shelves. The first books listed in the accession book are dated January 31, 1896. A room was hired for a library in the home of Will E. Emery, and Maria L. Emery was the first librarian and received $12 a year for rent and librarian work.

About 1911 the library was moved to the home of Mrs. Clara Shepherd and Mrs. Shepherd became the librarian. About this same time a branch library was started at North Monroe, in the home of Homer S. Smith, with Mrs. Mary P. Smith as branch librarian, and the branch library is still maintained at Mr. Smith's and Mrs. Smith is still librarian. Mrs. Smith also served a number of years on the board of trustees.

The town gave the use of the school house known as District No. 1, to the library in 1932, when Mrs. Shepherd resigned from the office of librarian because of ill health, and the school had moved into the new building. Mrs. Agnes H. Little was appointed librarian.

The town has steadily increased its appropriation to the public library from $25 to $1,095.40, and the volumes increased from the 100 books to about 4,740 adult books and 1,072 juvenile books. About one third of the adult books are non-fiction.

In 1896, Rev. Alvah Draper moved to another town and Robert S. Ward was elected to the board of trustees and has remained on that board for over 45 years.

In closing this report, I would like to call the people's attention to overdue books and magazines. We have been lenient with fines, etc., because travel has been more difficult. But now that we are getting back to normal, won't you please help the librarians to serve other patrons more efficiently by returning or having renewed the books and magazines you borrow when they are due?

JANE E. PRATT,

Librarian.

DISTRIBUTION OF PUPILS BY GRADES

Grades	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	Total
Monroe	8	10	12	12	6	8	6	9	71

TEACHERS AND PUPILS: There were no changes in the teaching staff except in the Music Department. Both Miss Brown and Miss Ginnorakos resigned and in view of the scarcity of teachers, the Board decided to employ but one music teacher. They elected Miss Ruth Lockwood of Fall River, Massachusetts, a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and who had been serving as supervisor of music in Ludlow, Vermont. In December, Mr. George McClure was discharged from the Army and resumed his duties as band teacher on January 10, 1946. Miss Connolly has taken over most of the remedial work this year. She is unusually well fitted by training and experience for this work and it gives her as principal, an intimate knowledge of the progress of each pupil in the school. By the use of standard tests, from time to time the progress of the pupils grade by grade is checked. By this means we are assured that the progress of the pupils is kept up to the grade standards. The more I study the Monroe schools, the more I am impressed with the fact that Monroe is doing a great deal more for its children than most communities are able to do, and we are trying to impress this fact upon the children so that they will not only appreciate what the town through its school is doing for them, but also to take full advantage of the opportunities offered to them.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS: The building and grounds are in excellent condition and are constantly kept that way by the Board. During the summer the furniture, woodwork and floors were given a coat of varnish.

I consider it a great privilege to serve as Superintendent in Monroe and to be associated with its School Board which has no other purpose than to provide the children of Monroe with the best possible educational advantages. For the courtesy and consideration shown me by the School Board and for the loyalty and cooperation of the citizens, teachers and pupils of Monroe, I am indeed truly grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

WESLEY H. DOUGLASS,
Superintendent of Schools

Woodsville, N. H.
